

Name: Allie Murray

Officer Position: Legacy Rep
Decade: 2010-2020

As a prospective officer & leader of the ODPAA, what do you consider your greatest strengths? Weaknesses?

My greatest strength is seeing different sides and view of things along with being creative in how I do. Another one of my strengths is being able to talk to anyone of any age. A weakness of mine is writing

If elected or re-elected to the position you seek, what is your commitment to serving out the full term?

I am committed to the full term.

Please describe accomplishments in your career and personal life that would benefit the ODPAA.

I have been a supervisor at six flags for 3 summers and got a promotion this summer. I have to oversee 80 team members all summer. And deal with guests and maintain safety

What is your vision for the future of the ODPAA? What changes would you advocate and why?

I would like to see more of my generation get more involved and have the age gaps close between and have us all move forward in the future as a whole sisterhood.

If elected or re-elected, please describe what you seek to accomplish:

I want hear from my generation and hear the feedback of what we can do to get more involved and work hard to see those concerns go away and everyone get more involved

What does Omega Delta Phi mean to you? Please describe your experience as both an active member and an alumni.

It means having someone no matter what. And with those people we can get through anything that life throws at us. My experience as an active wasn't what I thought it was and I definitely got handed the short stick. But this made me and my sisters in the house closer and we have a bond that no one else would understand because we went through the battles together. As an alumni I've gotten so close to many sisters I didn't think I would it's been amazing.

How would your sisters describe you?

My sisters would describe me as fun bubbly. Loud and crazy. But also caring and a great friend who is there for them when needed.

Please describe your approach to communicating and working with the ODPAA membership.

My approach would be listening and making sure all voices are heard and then looking at everything to see how things could change and grow as we move forward in a time we haven't experienced not having an active house.

How do you deal with difficult people & situations? Please describe a situation in which you took a position that upset someone else, and explain how you handled it.

I like to hear people out but also explain why things happen and look at the bigger position. An example I got a promotion at work that someone else wanted and they told me I wouldn't get it and I ended up going to my boss to explain why I deserve the position. Once I got it my coworker wasn't happy at all. I sat down with him and explained why I went to our boss and why I got it. Also explaining how it would be better for the company and team because I had already been working with the position and shadowing it for two years.

How do you motivate others?

I like to reward people for the work they do at work once a month I bring donuts in the show my appreciation. A simple thing shows that I am grateful for my team which makes them work hard. I also like to be hands on if I ask someone to do something. I've done it myself and know they can or I will complete the task right along side of them helping them every step.

How do you handle criticism?

I believe I handle it well. I listen to everything. And then I take time to process everything and see what went wrong and how I can improve for the next time so it can have a better outcome the next time.

What top 3 qualities do you think a leader should have?

1. Compassion.
2. Strong work ethic
3. Good communication skills

Would you rather be liked or respected? Why?

I would rather be respected. Respect is earned which means you work hard and show that you know what you are doing in the position or role you are. Also with respect people tend to also like you as well.

How do you spend your free time?

I like to spend my free time with my friends and family hanging out along with spending time outdoors at the lake or seeing new places and going on adventures.

For Fun: What's your 'superpower' or 'spirit animal' and why?

My spirit animal is my sister. She strives for everything she wants and works hard for it. Along with she is such a funny and loving girl. I want to be her when I grow up.
